

5 Mistakes to Avoid After a

Personal Injury

Introduction

Are you injured because someone else was doing something wrong? You deserve money that covers your damages. A lawyer can help you do that. We want you to avoid doing any of the following mistakes so you can get the money you deserve.

Mistake 1:

Not Collecting Evidence

Right after your injury you should collect evidence. You can take photos of the scene. For example: If you slipped on something at the grocery store, you would want to take photos of the spill.

It will be hard to get you compensation without this evidence.

You need treatment for your injuries. This is so important. If you don't go to the doctor, you can get worse. That sounds terrible, right? We're sure you'd rather get on the road to recovery.

What's more, the insurance company can try to keep money from you, if they don't see medical records for your accident.

Mistake 2:

Avoiding a Doctor

Mistake 3:

Talking to the Insurance Company

Insurance company reps don't care about you getting the money you deserve. They care about saving money for themselves.

Do not give them a recorded statement. One wrong answer could leave you with no compensation award. Let your lawyer talk to them for you.

You should not wait to talk to a lawyer. There are so many mistakes you can make that you might not realize would hurt your case. The sooner you get a lawyer the better. You are given a limited amount of time to bring your case. Do not delay.

Mistake 4:

Waiting too Long to Talk to a Lawyer

Mistake 5:

Going at It Alone

A man with a beard, wearing a grey blazer over a blue checkered shirt, is smiling and gesturing with his right hand while talking to another man. The second man, wearing a blue shirt and glasses, is seen from the back/side. The background is a blurred office setting.

We strongly suggest you don't try to do this on your own. If you go it alone, you are not likely to get the money you deserve. We take care of that for you. We've been doing this for years. We know what we're doing.

You deserve more than having to suffer quietly. Don't let this injury ruin your life. Get the money you deserve. Call us right away to set up a free consultation.
